

Mt. Vernon, Ky.
March, 29th. 1910

DEAR SIGNAL:

I am back again in dear old Mt. Vernon attending court. Judge Bethurum presides with dignity and ability. His instructions to the jury the strongest, ablest, most forceful to which my admiring attention was ever given. How proud I am of those two boys, Leonard and Burgess. It may well be said of them "par nobele fratrum a nobile, a grander pair of brothers never walked among men. Both of them married relatives of mine on the Stigall side of my house. All the big grand people of this beautiful mountain town are related to me. So far me I reflect more glory upon my relatives than I can inherit from them." Bonaparte said this before I did and it is pardonable in both of us. The Commonwealth Attorney, Judge Jarvis is upon the throne of greatness as well now as he once adorned the bench. My cousin Hugh Miller as Circuit Court Clerk is only equaled by my nephew of Lincoln James F. Holman. The new Sheriff has the right name Nice-ly. I am under many obligations to the Rev. John Elder and his congregation for the copious tears they shed over my bier Sunday when it was announced that I had been killed at Crab Orchard Saturday in open court, shot five times. It was like Brutus showing and commenting on Caesar's wounds. What a great glory to live after death in the fond memory of friends.

More anon.

KILLS A MURDERER.

A merciless murderer is Appendicitis with many victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills kill it by prevention. They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, preventing that clogging that invades appendicitis, curing Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Chills, 25c at Chas. C. Davis.

"Not a lion did his duty", was the declaration delivered in mock gravity by former President Roosevelt in concluding his remark at the reception given in Cairo to fellow-citizens from America. The joke was not lost and caused a hearty laugh in which the speaker joined.

JUDGE B. J. BETHURUM,

Who went on the bench Monday for the first time as Judge of the Rockcastle Circuit Court. Judge Bethurum, who is the youngest Judge in the State presides, both with dignity and ability and his charge to the grand jury was recognized by the large crowd of representative farmers, lawyers and business men who heard it, as being one of the strongest and ablest ever delivered to a Rockcastle jury.

Judge Bethurum is just but not stern, severe but not merciless, and when a case is called for trial believes in trying that case instead of allowing it pass without a reasonable and lawful excuse for doing so, and thereby keep heaping up a congested docket, which can only be relieved by a special term, incurring extra expense to the State to do that which should have been done at the regular term. Not only in Mt. Vernon, but in the other counties in his district in which he has held court he is highly complimented for the manner in which he does things.

McAfee—

"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,

Old Time is fast a flying;
And this same rose that blooms today,

Tomorrow may be dying."

How truly applicable is this sentiment to the beautiful life of Mrs. Uta Hutcheson McAfee, who sweetly closed her weary eyes Monday at 5:30 o'clock p. m. at Manchester, Ohio. Her death was a great shock to her many friends here although for the past two weeks she has been lingering between life and death in spite of all that relatives, friends and physicians could administer.

For some time Mrs. McAfee has been in bad health, but would not consent to have her people here notified of the seriousness of her case thinking she would soon be better. However, about three weeks ago her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hutcheson, went to her home at Stout, Ohio, and her mother has since been with her constantly. Mr. Hutcheson's business called him away several times. Also Mrs. M. B. Salin, of Mt. Vernon, Ky., Mrs. McAfee's sister and Mrs. Jas. W. Hutcheson, of Brodhead, Ky., her sister-in-law have been with her, Mrs. Salin in the past five weeks.

In order to have the best medical aid possible they moved Mrs. McAfee to Manchester about two weeks ago, and it was there, as stated above, her death occurred as a result of a complication of diseases.

The deceased was born January 19, 1885 at Monterey, Ky., where her parents lived for several years, but the greater part of her life was spent in Owenton where she made so many friends among the old as well as the young on account of her lovable disposition and excellent character.

Mrs. McAfee was the second daughter and the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Hutcheson, the others being Mrs. M. B. Salin, of Mt. Vernon; Messrs. J. B. and Frank Hutcheson, of this place; Mr. James W. Hutcheson, Brodhead; and Mr. H. H. Hutcheson, Louisville, all of whom were with her when death came with the exception of Messrs. J. W. and Frank. In this family, this is the first death to occur.

At about the age of thirteen years she gave her life to her God and was devoted to the Christian Church of which she became a member. This was exemplified by the active part she took in the services, a regular Sunday School scholar, a member of the choir and just previous to her marriage was organist. She was popular in social life as well as devoted to her church, being a member of two clubs formed here among the young people.

Less than a year ago, May 26, 1909, she was married at the home of her parents on Perry Street to Mr. S. B. McAfee, of Stout, Ohio. This short and happy married life was spent in Stout.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hutcheson, Mr. Jas. W. Hutcheson, Miss Alma McAfee, of Harrodsburg, Mr. Harry McAfee, of Lawrenceburg, and Mr. S. B. McAfee accompanied the remains to Owenton Tuesday at noon and the funeral was held at the Christian Church, conducted by W. J. Loos Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the presence of many grief-stricken relatives and friends and in the midst of a shower of beautiful flowers. Burial took place in the Owenton I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

The active pall bearers were: Messrs. J. M. Herndon, J. B. Martin, O. H. Curtis, R. H. Gayle, P. A. Alexander, Alvin Stegar. The honorary pall bearers were the members of the F. B. W. Club of which Mrs. McAfee was a member and the first to be taken from its ranks in the way which no hand can still, save God's. Some of the members were unable to be here but those who attended were: Mrs. W. E. Lindsay, Misses Martha Holbrook, Ella Roberts, Mollie Perry, Roberta Lee, Leah Walker. —News-Herald Owenton.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as secretly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

THE WEARING AWAY OF PREJUDICE.

The passing years smooth away the sharp antagonism of former days and the political hostility with which men regard each other today will in course of time give place to mutual respect and a larger charity. All this is being illustrated today in relation to the various statues that are being placed in the Hall of Fame in Washington. Here and there, to be sure, some voice may be raised in protest concerning the inclusion of some particular statue, but it is drowned in the chorus of approval. In that Hall are found the likeness of men who fought against each other, who represented opposite views in politics, and who more than once crossed swords with each other in debate. But today at the exercises that mark the unveiling of the statue of such a one, representatives from all parts of the country and to different political faiths vie with each other to describe in suitable and eloquent language the merits of the one being honored.

This is well and from it we should learn the spirit of tolerance and of respect for men whose convictions in any realm of thought may differ from our own but who are as equally sincere in their view as we may be in ours.

Many who were enthusiastic over an old fashioned winter probably think that nature rather overdid it this year. Anyway there seems to be a glad relief that spring is here or on its way.

A rich man died at an advanced age in Chicago the other day. He was regarded as almost the last survival of those who did business in that city before the war. All classes mourned his death and revered his memory. In his long business career he was noted for his courtesy, probity and openness. Whenever he was invited to engaged in some business transaction he always asked, "is it right?" not, "will it pay?" Good old fashioned qualities those which many a man might well follow today, especially young men just started out in life. It would prevent many a business failure and many a moralshipwreck.

The men who say "let things alone, they're good enough for us," stand in the way of progress in the town in which they live. They want things to continue in the same old way that sufficed fifty years ago. We knew a man who was opposed to the electric lighting or any other system of lighting the streets of the town in which he lived, because, so he said he could take a stable lantern with him when he wanted to go down town. But it is suggestive that the men who oppose improvements in their town usually want and have the best of furniture and other comforts in their homes.

It is not too much to say that the whole nation is eagerly awaiting the decision of the Supreme Court on the suit brought by the government against the Standard Oil and Beef trusts. Whatever the nature of the decision it is clear that in the matter of trusts and corporations a good deal of history is going to be made during the next few years. In an economic sense, which involves also that which is political, the coming decade which involves also that will be among the most important in the life of the nation.

The man who finds his pleasures in drinking or in animal passion will surely realize at last that his pleasures are exceedingly costly in the weakening of his will power, a wearied satiety and loss of bodily and moral strength. Ultimately he comes to understand the meaning of what is called "the law of diminishing returns," though he may not know it by that name.

If "manners maketh man," as the old adage puts it, the process of making is not very far advanced with some people. Classes in courtesy and politeness might not be amiss in some places.

The man who thinks he has no faults possesses the greatest of all faults. Though he may not recognize it his fellow men do, and their estimate of him is far from flattering.

Impatience is responsible for the failure of many projects in which men engage. They expect results too soon and when they are not forthcoming the promoters become impatient, lose heart and give up. The patient man holds on, does not get discouraged and in due time reaps the reward of his patience.

What a lot of satisfaction there is in doing the right thing and doing it in the right way. The two should always go together for sometimes the good act does not achieve the blessings we desire because of the want of tact or the clumsy way in which we do it.

Easter came earlier than usual this year but all the same it was welcome as it brought its message of hope, cheer and immortality. Cold and unresponsive must indeed be the soul which at such a time does not feel some quickening of life and joy.

It never pays to cheat and steal. In the lower sense it may frequently bring gain, but it always means loss of honor and character, and nothing can ever compensate for such loss.

Happy is the man who does one thing at a time—who takes up the plain duty of the moment, whatever it may be, and does it quickly and cheerfully.

What a dwarfed shriveled up life is that which is concerned only with itself. It is to be pitied and avoided not praised and imitated.

BUILDING MATERIAL IN THE FLESH.

What of Mount Vernon and it's men? Have we building material in the flesh or have we not? Some lag behind. Some boldly proclaim the truth and stand out for better and more improved conditions of municipal affairs. There is U. G. Baker, the Marshall Fields of Rockcastle, and Jones Fish of William Douglass fame, made so by his reputation for splendid shoes. There is the enterprising, progressive firm of McKenzie & McBee, the Mabley & Carey of Mount Vernon. But where, oh, where are Kruger & Son? On New Main they can be found, ready, willing and ever anxious to serve you. Andy Fish, Claude Cox, Bowling & Kirby are amongst the times with fancy groceries of every kind. There is that sterling, honest ever fair Billy Poynter, Contractors, large and small, doff their hats in admiration for the marvelous energy and wise business sense of W. J. Sparks. Sam Davis will soon be the electric light magnate. What would our city of the dead be were it not for Jim Adams, for each year he gathers the funds and personally superintends the cleaning of Mount Vernon's sadly neglected grave yard. Heaven observes and commends his thoughtful act and on the day of judgment the records of that great Court of universal justice will give him due credit for such becoming labors here below. Charles C. Davis, with the inherited pharmaceutical tendencies of his father, Dr. Davis, fills your prescriptions with the greatest accuracy and promptness. Richard and Silin are good Bankers, but look out for those able assistants, A. B. Furnish and F. Thompson, Jr. We wager a 'boss collar' to a lady's belt buckle that they will be cashiers one of these fine grass-growing, 'tater plantin', spring days and that e'er long. With the swiftness of a grayhound "Gene" Brown chases his livery; while Cox Bros. with the steady pull of a time-tried and road tested work horse, plies business with increasing success. But what of Casper, John Watson, Leonard and Sam, each one of them a legal luminary of the first magnitude. There is also the prince of millers, Albert Hamlin, a rich benefactor of his family and community. There are others equally deserving of mention, but space forbids at this time.

If you find the man who says that we haven't men who can build a modern Rome and make her shine like unto the "Seven Hill City", it is the order of the court that he be adjudged a knocker, an insurgent of the deepest dye. But it such we have and he can be found, with the tenderest caresses love him back into the fold of belief in the substantial growth of home and town. Fill him with an all consuming desire to be a benefactor of his race, a helper of human progress and a lover of all mankind. With this spirit, born of a determination to produce better conditions, Mount Vernon will blossom as the rose, her business expand; education will come to further bless and enlighten us; our lives will be purer and our homes sweeter and happier. The morning stars will sing a charming melody upon a consummation so devoutly wished for and Heaven will shower upon us her richest and fairest benediction.

Thomas McGhee, a flagman, was found dead near the Pineville depot. A bruise was found behind McGhee's right ear and his neck was broken. It is not known whether he was murdered or a train killed him.

E. C. Gross, 20 years old, while attempting to board a freight train at Bowling Green, was thrown under the wheels and his right leg cut off at the knee. He was taken in charge by the railroad surgeon. It is thought he will recover.

James Cain, gate keeper for the L. & N. at Corbin, shot and killed William McCullom and in turn was killed by Lee Reid, at whom Cain had also shot. Reid and McCullom were in charge of Police Judge Early when the shooting occurred.

MCKENZIE & MCBEE.

W. J. Childress, of Livingston, informs us that he will soon migrate to that splendid little town Hustonville, Lincoln county, to locate. We regret to lose Dr. Childress and his most estimable wife from our county, but we certainly hope the change will prove a beneficial one for him. Dr. Childress is specially adapted to his chosen profession, and to his new associates, friends and patrons, we can heartily recommend him as a gentleman and physician worthy of their confidence.

JUDGES FOR PIANO CONTEST

Every young lady, who enters THE SIGNAL's piano contest, can do it with the absolute assurance of fair treatment. The editor of this paper is determined that the contest must be conducted along absolutely fair lines—that nothing will be permitted that will favor of partiality or favoritism. No ballots will be permitted to go into the ballot box but honest, legitimate ballots; and in order to insure an absolutely fair contest at the end of the contest, we have appointed for judges, for the men who will count the ballots, three representative citizens of our city whose reputations for fairness and honesty will not be questioned. These judges are as follows: W. L. Richards, cashier of The Bank of Mt. Vernon; M. B. Salin, cashier of the Peoples Bank and J. Fish, proprietor of the well known, Fish Furnishing Store.

DEATH CHAIR.

ELECTROCUTION AT THE STATE PENITENTIARY TAKES PLACE OF GALLOW.

Death "by the rope" in Kentucky, at least under lawful conditions, soon will be a thing of the past, as Governor Willson has approved the bill introduced by Senator Herman Newcomb, which substitutes electrocution as the means of inflicting the death penalty. The law also provides that such electrocutions shall take place within the walls of the State prison at Frankfort. This does away with the "hangman's day," which has long been a recognized institution in Kentucky. An execution generally has been looked upon as a gruesome show. Just how the prison commissioners will provide for this method of execution is a question. Dr. Joe Barr, prison physician at Frankfort, expressed the opinion that it would require an appropriation of $25,000 to properly equip the penitentiary for the electrocution of condemed persons. This appropriation was not made, and it will be a difficult matter to provide the means under the present circumstances. Kentucky has taken a long step forward in the opinion of criminologists, in passing the New comb law. In divorcing the State from the ancient and repulsive method of legal execution, even when conducted as privately as possible, the Commonwealth has taken rank along with many other progressive States.

A Watch Is Made to Keep Time

Of what use is a watch if it will not tell correct time? When we repair a watch we want it to keep correct time. We not only repair watches, but we adjust and time them. There is a difference in simply repairing a watch and adjusting it. A mechanic can often repair a watch, but it requires art and skill to adjust and time a watch after the repairing is done. When we repair a watch we do the adjusting and timing FREE. The accurate adjusting and timing we give a watch is what makes our repairing satisfactory.

Alcohol to Children

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely. Children do not need stimulating."
